READING GIRLS BASKETBALL CAMPS are based on a simple philosophy:

To teach girls the fundamentals of basketball in a fun atmosphere, instilling the importance of teamwork and self-confidence.

HAVE FUN

We believe a full 8-hour camp day is non-productive. It often makes basketball too arduous. Our day is shorter, more varied, and more fun than the traditional approach.

LEARN FUNDAMENTALS

Campers receive individual attention and instruction. Throughout the week, campers will learn various skills and techniques, allowing them to build a solid foundation of basketball fundamentals.

MAKE NEW FRIENDS

Campers' age and ability are evaluated and considered in forming teams. The camps are designed to work on the specific needs of girls in Elementary School and Middle School.

IMPROVE SKILLS

Small group instruction and league play assist in the development of each camper's individual and team basketball skills.

HEALTH

All care and precaution are given to each girl. An athletic trainer is on hand at all times.

CAMP DIRECTORS

KIM PENNEY is currently entering her 13th year as the Varsity Girls Basketball Coach at Reading Memorial High School. For 11 consecutive seasons, her teams have qualified for the MIAA State Tournament. In 2009, Reading (21-3) captured the Middlesex League title and advanced to the Division 2 North Final for the second consecutive year.

ED LEYDEN is currently the Head Women's Coach at Suffolk University. He is a 4-time GNAC Coach of the Year; 2-time MBCA Coach of the Year; and the Boston Globe Division I Coach of the Year when he coached at Revere High School in the late 80s. Before Suffolk, Leyden also coached at Reading Memorial High School and at Tufts University.

CAMP STAFF

Reading Girls Basketball Camp takes pride in its staff. Our staff is comprised of quality people – experienced local college and high school coaches, as well as, female college and high school players. We always teach the FUNDamentals of the game!
